Oklahoma State Association of Parliamentarians

The OSAP President and board members have been busy planning the year's events. The dates of our annual convention and workshop are July 15-16, 2011, at the Wyndham Garden Hotel in Oklahoma City.

"Effective Meeting Management for Oklahoma" is this year's theme, which follows the national theme of "Effective Meeting Management to the World." The OSAP board will meet four times this year in accordance with the bylaws; the final board meeting will be held the Friday evening before state convention.

Everyone seemed to have fun with the Hawaiian theme at the 2010 convention last June, and most of us showed up wearing our colorful, flowered Hawaiian shirts. The evaluations from both the convention and educational workshop were very complimentary. The educational sessions were well received, especially the presentations on Homeowners Associations given by our National Representative, Steve Glanstein, PRP, and a local Oklahoma City attorney, Matthew Winton.

Our educational sessions this year promise to be every bit as informative as last year, and we think you will be surprised at how much you will benefit from attending the sessions on Friday. We are also sending out a request this year to each of our members to attend and support the annual convention on Saturday. This is the one time during the year that you can voice your opinion and vote for the candidates of your choice.

It would be a great boost to our Oklahoma Association if each of the units could draw in new members; therefore, the board would like to challenge each unit by asking that they entice at least two Provisional Members into taking the NAP membership exam before our annual convention, and a prize will be given to those units that meet this challenge. MEET THE CHALLENGE—win the prize!

Let's not forget that retention of our current members is also important, so we hope you are giving enlightening programs at your unit meetings and encouraging members in other ways. The future of OSAP and NAP depend on our members, so spread the word about parliamentary procedure because it is an interesting topic!

The 2011 District Six Conference will be held on June 17-19, 2011, in New Orleans.

The NAP 2011 Annual Meeting and Biennial Convention is scheduled for September 23-26, 2011, in St. Petersburg, Florida. This should be an exciting, fun-filled convention (with lots of bylaw changes), so we are hoping many of our members are able to attend.

The 2011 OSAP annual convention and workshop will be held on Friday-Saturday, July 15-16, 2011, at the Wyndham Garden Hotel in Oklahoma City. NAP Bylaws Committee Chairman, Kirk Overbey, PRP, will be the NAP national representative. Kirk will be updating us on NAP activities and initiatives and will be presenting a session at the Friday workshop and another session on Saturday afternoon. Kirk is from Austin, TX.

According to the OSAP bylaws as amended on June 19, 2010, the Communications Committee shall:

"Upon receipt of amended bylaws from the Bylaws Committee Chairman, make changes to the bylaws on the OSAP website and publish in the Oklahoma Parliamentarian that the revised Bylaws are available online and will be mailed to members only upon request."

—IMPORTANT NOTICE—

In Memory of Bill Stemmons, PRP

We will miss our friend, Bill R. Stemmons, PRP, who passed away Dec. 15, 2010. Bill was a Pastor and a longtime volunteer for the Republican Party. He was also a United States Air Force veteran and served in Vietnam.

Bill was interested in all aspects of parliamentary procedure and achieved the status of Professional Registered Parliamentarian with the National Association of Parliamentarians. He wrote parliamentary opinions and served as a parliamentarian to numerous organizations over the years. He was a longtime member of the Oklahoma City Unit Parliamentarians and the Oklahoma State Association of Parliamentarians. Over the years, he served in several positions on the Board of Directors of the OSAP and served as President during 1997-1998 and Parliamentarian during 2007-2008. Bill attended the National Convention of Parliamentarians in Omaha, Nebraska in 2007; and even though he was in ill health, he made an effort to attend part of the OSAP annual convention in 2010 where he was able to reconnect and visit with many of his friends in the association. Thanks, Bill, for your involvement in the Oklahoma City Unit Parliamentarians, the Oklahoma State Association of Parliamentarians, and the National Association of Parliamentarians.
